

Tumblr is Clueless: “Who is the Antichrist?”

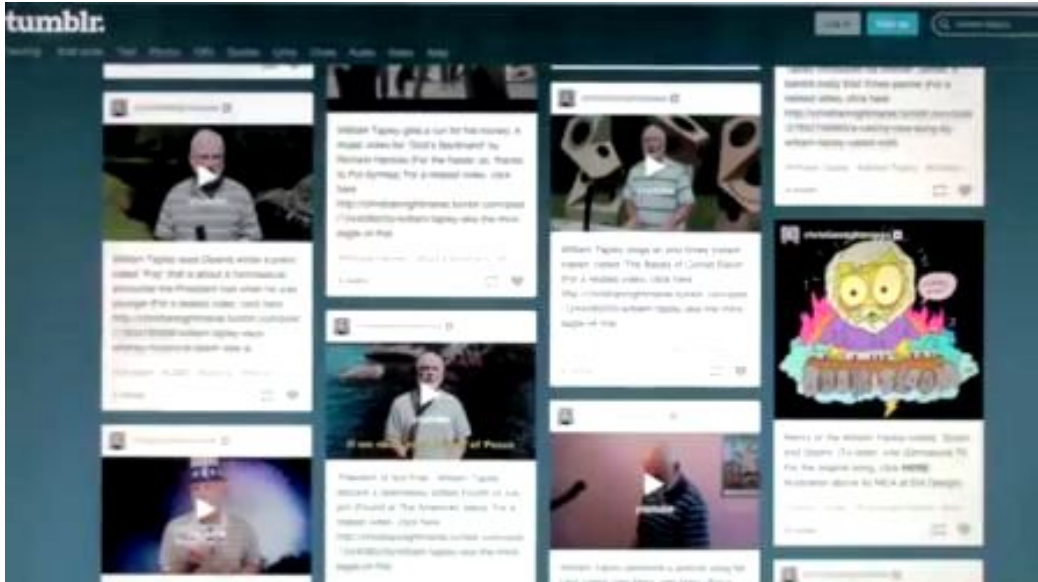

Yesterday, my Web Manager from Australia called me up and she wanted to talk about some concerns she had especially about my website and she also mentioned that she was concerned about all the negative comments which are appearing about me in the social media and she specifically mentioned Tumblr. Well, I reminded her that there is no such thing as a popular prophet. That is an oxymoron. The more unpopular I am, the more I am sure my message is hitting home.

But, in any case, I checked it out and she was right. It's unbelievable how many videos have been posted on Tumblr which are meant to make fun of me, which are insults, and I'm going to show you a clip that I made. I scrolled down on Tumblr, and remember now, I did not upload any of these videos to Tumblr, someone else did and they are all negative, a hundred percent. And you can check out other prophets from YouTube on Tumblr and none of them are treated like I am. I guess I should consider it sort of an honor to be singled out this way. So, I counted the number of my videos posted by other people on this Tumblr site and there are at least 60 videos posted.

I noticed they even posted some of Anderson Cooper's insults about me from his Ridiculist series where he called me "Third Eye Blind" and he even asked: "Imagine what he sees in the clouds?" Now, you can be sure Anderson Cooper would never insult the Prophet Mohammed that way. They especially made fun of my series on the sexual and satanic imagery I found in the Denver Airport murals. I have a feeling they get upset when you hit home.

On the other hand, at least they have uploaded some of my sculpture and music videos. Somebody even drew a nasty cartoon of me and as you can see, on the upcoming right hand side, here is a cartoon of me playing my keyboard.

However, I doubt if he will ever post a cartoon of Mohammed. Now, I know you people on Tumblr have a good time making fun of me especially, for example, in my series on Psy where I said that the Korean pop star represents the Antichrist in his videos.

So now I am going to ask you a question which you cannot answer. This new video Psy called "Daddy", which he was supposed to release last summer, never got uploaded. I wonder why? And I will explain why. "Daddy" is the Antichrist and the Antichrist is being held back by the Prophets Enoch and Elijah. "Daddy" was supposed to be published last summer. We went through the fall; no "Daddy", all winter long, no "Daddy", no Antichrist; and the reason is because the Antichrist is being held up, and I'll give you a little clue: when Psy does finally release his music video "Daddy" that will be a signal that the Antichrist has indeed come on the scene. He will then be ruling the planet Earth.
