

Complete Decode of Dana Coverstone's "Fire Tower" Dream

I have another very interesting decode of a Dana Coverstone dream. It is his most recent dream and he calls it the "Fire Tower" dream. It is a fascinating dream and it involves me personally I think, just as a lot of his dreams have. Certainly it involves our own remnant Catholic Church and a lot of people have noticed that. It's a prophecy for us and those of you who are watching and for me, and so and I think the best way to put it is I feel kind of a resonance with Dana. Dana is kind of like a watchman on the wall or in this case a tower, a fire tower and I feel the same way myself. He is reaching out to evangelicals and I'm reaching out to the remnant Catholic Church, hopefully the entire Catholic Church, but the entire Catholic Church is right now under a Vatican that has been taken over, as Mary prophesied at La Salette. She said Rome would lose the faith and become the seat of the Antichrist.

Now this dream of Dana Coverstone's fulfills the requirements of apocalyptic prophecy. It's extremely unusual. I used to think the only apocalyptic prophecy was in the Bible until I discovered that La Salette was apocalyptic prophecy. Anyway, the symbolic interpretation takes precedence over the literal, numerology is extremely important and it takes a co-prophet to understand it. Those are the three most important aspects of apocalyptic prophecy.

Dana Coverstone got this dream between March 22nd and April 13th and that's 23 days, which is kind of interesting if you know. If you watched the very first video I did way back in 2008, I explained on there what the number 23 means and it is another number for the Antichrist, because 2 represents mankind, 3 represents God, and when you put man before God or over God like in a fraction, you get the decimal point 666. I don't think that's accidental. In other words just the fact that the dream lasted over 23 days tells us that this is End Times prophecy. Okay let's look at the first slide I've got. (The significant numerology is underlined.)

THE FIRE TOWER DREAM March 22 – April 13 (23 days)

"As the dream began I was standing about 100 feet above the ground at the very top of a fire tower. I could see in all directions and I could clearly see random fires all around me on the ground below. There were no buildings, no homes, no businesses. It was just forests and fields and lots of green cover below; no mountains, no valleys, just flat ground and there were a lot of people out there.

So it's interesting that this is an unusual place. It's obviously symbolic. I mean if you have a place where there are lots of people but there's no buildings, no houses, no businesses, nothing? This is an unusual place. I think we can find out exactly what we're talking about here. And he says there are a lot of people.

So where in the Bible do you find a lot of people? Well there are several places, but in the End Times we find a lot of people in Revelation 7 verses 9 and 16. I'm going to show you these and I think this is the same group we're talking about. Now the group in Revelation is in Heaven. The group in Dana's dream are on the green landscape with no houses, but I think it's the same group as we will find. So let's look at the slide I have from Revelation 7 verse number 9.

Rev 7:9 “After this I saw a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and tribes, and peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne, and in sight of the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands.

Rev 7:13 And one of the ancients answered, and said to me: These that are clothed in white robes, who are they? and whence came they?”

So now, I'm going to claim that the group that Dana sees from the tower, the large group and this group in the Book of Revelation are the same group, except that the group in Dana's dream show the group before they are taken to Heaven, whereas when they get to Heaven, they wear white, they have palms in their hands. Palms in their hands indicate martyrdom. They suffered death and we're going to see in Dana's dream what kind of a death they suffered. Okay let's look at the next slide which is from Revelation also. We continue describing this group, this large group in Revelation chapter 7 verses 14.

Rev 7:14 “And I said to him: My Lord, thou knowest. And he said to me: These are they who are come out of the great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and have made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Rev 7:16 They shall no more hunger nor thirst, neither shall the sun fall on them, nor any heat.”

So I claim that this is the same group that Dana sees from the fire tower. The location; he calls it a green field, green grass, the trees and so on, and I think this is the same as what the woman flees to in the Book of Revelation, where it is called a desert, but there's other ways to interpret the word “desert”. It can also be interpreted as a wilderness, and I've often mentioned that our refuges could be a cave in the mountains, a cabin in the woods. So the wilderness can be a desert landscape or in this case, it is a green landscape, but there are no houses. That sounds so much like a wilderness without any amenities. This is what we are going to have to flee to. We are going to have to find a refuge in the wilderness I think you'll see that these people in Dana's dream don't find a refuge, for the most part.

In the Book of Revelation, the fact that they no longer have hunger, that that indicates that the people in Dana's dream are facing the problems of the black horse that rides. That indicates famine, and the fires that Dana sees. He says they're random all over the place. He may have suggested that they were Hell fires. I don't think they are. I think these are part of the punishment upon mankind. In other words they are part of the chastisement from God. I think that they are parts of meteors, parts of comets and so on. And that's what happens in the End Time and I think it could possibly be nuclear radiation. Okay let's look at the next slide I have.

“The fires were being driven by very strong winds that I could even feel on the top of that tower as I looked down. And I was yelling as loud as I could at people who were just wandering below and walking towards those fire areas. They were walking towards the area where I saw the fires. I had no bull horn, no microphone, no sound system and I could tell that my voice was strained from yelling.”

Okay now the wind's blowing the flames; that that would indicate that these fires come from God. That would be the Holy Spirit. When he says he has no bull horn, no sound system; that means that we have left the internet. This is the great tribulation that these people are in. There's no internet that he can reach them. I mean right now we have the internet, but at that time it's probably going to be a different form of communication I would guess.

As I say, I identify with Dana Coverstone on top of the tower trying to reach people and the numerology in this is at the beginning here. The height of the tower is 100 feet high, and that indicates to me two rosaries. As you know 50 is the number in the Bible for Mary's Rosary, so this person on top of the tower who was Dana, I think it also represents me because of the 100 feet high. That would be two rosaries and I have said all along here on this program that you must pray more than just one series of five decades. You really need to pray all four decades, all four mysteries every day, and I think that's what the 100 feet represents. All of these numbers in this dream which Dana Coverstone received have significance, and that's typical of apocalyptic prophecy.

Now the people in the Book of Revelation, they'll no longer have to worry about hunger and they don't have to worry about heat and the sun falling on them. Well I think that is what we're talking about here. Those are the fires that Dana sees and they're not hellfires. It could be nuclear radiation. I guess I mentioned that. Okay let's get let's go to the next slide, slide number 3.

“I was telling people to walk in a direction away from the fires and was saying north and south or east or west and I said, “Hey go to your left, go to your left. Hey you in the blue baseball cap, hey you in the yellow jacket, you can go left, there's fire ahead.” But even though I gave them clear directions nobody was listening. I kept screaming and I was screaming very, very loud. I could feel the raspiness in my voice almost getting hoarse. I was screaming; I was clapping my hands, trying to get their attention.”

Now there's another indication that I think that this person, not only indicates Dana reaching his congregation, but me reaching my remnant Catholic Church, because of the hoarseness. And as we see on this program I have hoarseness. If I had my “Dandy Blend”, I could sip on it. That would help, and if you pray the Rosary with me every morning at 10 am you know I have this problem. It's probably because I'm getting old, but nonetheless, the fact that Dana mentions his hoarseness and the raspiness of his voice, I think, points to me. Okay let's look at the next slide I have here set up, and continuing with Dana's dream.

“I even had a piece of wood I was beating on the metal frame in front of me where I stood looking down at the ground. I was beating a piece of wood against that, trying to make noise doing anything I could to get the attention of those on the floor of the canopy below me. But nonetheless, no one was listening. I kept yelling at a group of people that finally looked up at me and said to stop yelling at them. I kept saying, ‘I'm trying to save your life so don't keep going in the direction you're going or you're going to end up in the fire.’ And they just looked up and they just kind of looked back down and kept going.”

I think Dana does a good job of warning his congregation. If you watch his video, he is very passionate and my sister watched it. She told me that you can see he's very sincere, and my approach is obviously quite a bit different. I don't have that enthusiasm. Well of course he's a lot a lot younger than I am, but I have a more intellectual approach in analyzing what the prophecy is all about, and that's why, not only had Dana's congregation better start listening, but the remnant Catholic Church had better start listening also. Okay let's look at the next slide.

“Suddenly, after this group of people responded to me, what appeared to be a group of soldiers came out of the forest and they were armed with weapons but they were all wearing green camo. It looked like the kind of camouflage you go hunting in. It reminded me of the 70s and 80s, the early style of camouflage. It looked kind of cheap, kind of cheesy. It wasn't professional; it wasn't military grade by any means. And these people started telling the people to ignore my yelling as there were no fires in the area at all.”

So okay, so now we have some more numerology in the 70s and the 80s and I was trying to figure out what that would refer to. At first I thought well you add the two numbers together. That would be 150. That's a Rosary number, but that's not printed here because these people are trying to subvert Dana Coverstone yelling from the top of the tower. And I said I wonder if that has to do with the 1970s and the 1980s which is what Dana says it does. And the pope in the 1970s was Pope Paul VI the pope in the 1980s was Pope John Paul II. What's interesting is that those two popes plus the pope in between which would be Pope John Paul I; they ignored the prophecies of Sister Lucy at Fatima, just like Dana says that these soldiers telling the people to ignore the prophecy, The popes in those decades ignored the very important prophecy of Fatima that they were supposed to consecrate Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I think that is the reference here. In fact it got so bad that the Vatican somehow got rid of Sister Lucy and nobody knows how. Nobody knows the fate of the real Sister Lucy and they installed an imposter in her place and it's so obvious. All you have to do is to look at the photographs and I have some photographs here I want to show you.

So on the left, you have the real Sister Lucy who received the prophecy from Mary at Fatima, and on the right you see the imposter who was wearing lipstick by the way. The real Sister Lucy would never wear real lipstick.

Now here's another picture of the two. The Vatican tries to tell us that the impostor on the right is the same person as Sister Lucia on the left. Well you know it doesn't take too much to see that those two people are not the same person, and there is photographic evidence like this all over the internet. It's amazing that nobody's called out the Vatican on this.

And here's the most obvious comparison. Sister Lucia is on the left. You can see the profile. It's not too clear, but notice how her chin is receding. She has a receding chin, whereas the impostor Lucy on the right has a prominent chin that juts out, just the opposite. How in the world did the Vatican get away with this fraud? How can they get away with fooling people like that? All right now. We looked at all the pictures of the imposters, so now I want to look at the next slide I've got from Dana's dream.

“I could tell they were not truly soldiers but could not tell what they were affiliated with but they had military equipment and obviously had background in it. The pretend soldiers then started yelling at me to stop harassing people. As they did this some of the younger ones in the crowd began throwing rocks at the tower that I was standing on and yelling at me to stop screaming at them. I then yelled that they were walking towards the fire and that they were at risk of dying.”

Now I think Dana believes that these soldiers, the military soldiers represent clergy. I think he's right on that. In fact for the Catholic Church, they would represent the hierarchy, and I think they do. And I mentioned already Pope Paul VI and Pope John Paul II. They refused to release the third secret. Nobody knows what they did with Sister Lucy, the real Sister Lucy, but somebody in the Vatican installed the imposter. So when Dana Coverstone says that they are pretend soldiers, I think that's a damning evidence of the type of hierarchy we have right at the moment. Okay let's look at my next slide.

“At this time one of the soldiers,” that would be the hierarchy, “started shooting at the bottom of the platform that I was standing on and he yelled to the crowd that there was no fire, they should just continue on in the direction they'd been going. When I yelled that they were lying and that I could see the fire ahead of them, they shot the bottom of the platform that I was standing on again. They didn't pay any attention to me after that. The people continued walking towards the fire just like they were blind.”

Well, I have the exact same feeling that Dana Coverstone has. The Catholic Church, are any of them listening to my co-prophecies? Well this video won't get one-tenth the views that Dana Coverstone's video gets, but since he's the prophet I can understand that, but the people who watch his videos are not going to understand them, because Dana doesn't understand them. Not that that's anything bad on his part. The prophet Daniel did not understand his dreams. Daniel's dreams were for the End Times and apocalyptic prophecy must be interpreted. That's one of the characteristics of apocalyptic prophecy.

And this reminds me of what Jesus said, “A prophet is not without honor except in his own country”. (Mark 6:4) In other words, I guess this is nothing new, but it's what I think is kind of frightening is that it's the clergy, and that is the hierarchy. The military are the ones who are trying to shoot down the true prophets. Is that what happened to Sister Lucy? Some people say she was murdered. We know Pope John Paul I was murdered. That was revealed. Not that the Vatican has ever admitted that. Well anyway, there is a campaign on now in YouTube and on the internet to get to the bottom of Sister Lucy's disappearance and the installing of the imposter Sister Lucy. Okay let's look at the next slide.

“Well one young teenager”, this would be another number, “began wiping his arms kind of like oh he could feel the heat coming. He said he was getting hot maybe they should listen to the guy in the tower. One large adult came to the teen and pushed him very hard so the kid sprawled out on the ground. He told the teen, “Shut up or you're not coming with us,” and the teen watched the crowd go and he did not get up off the ground.”

Okay so it's interesting that there's one teenager, in other words a real small minority who's listens to the prophecy, and there's one adult who counters him. I wonder if the one adult would be like Pope Francis. It's interesting that a teen understands the prophecy. If you look at Mary's appearances, Mary is the greatest prophet of the End Times by the way. If you look at her appearances at La Salette, at Fatima, at Lourdes, Garibaldi Magicoria, she always appears to teenagers, usually shepherds. I wonder if maybe this teen symbolizes the age group that can accept prophecy. Maybe I should focus my attention on teens, because maybe that's what Dana is letting us know; the Holy Spirit through Dana. Okay let me look at the next slide.

“Within seconds the people in the crowd that were walking towards the fire burst into flames and they were screaming in agony and pain and they were running back towards the young man. They were begging him to put the fire out but he ran from them in the opposite direction and didn't even try to help them. Seeing the young man run away I began telling him to head to his left for about 50 feet and to wait for a fire break. Soldiers began yelling for the kid to head back the way he'd come but he refused and he kept running, ducking every few feet as they were firing at him.”

Okay so now in this section the number 50 is obvious symbolism and we know that that represents Mary's Rosary. We know it from the Book of Esther because the scaffold that the king hangs Haman on, who represents the Antichrist is 50 cubits high. That would be 75 feet. Do you realize how high that is? It's obviously a symbolic number and it's the same symbolism here. The 50 feet that the kid is directed by Dana to run off to, represents Mary's Rosary. That's how the kid is going to be saved, through the Rosary. In other words there are 50 Hail Marys in a five-decade mystery.

Most of the people in this crowd are going to be burned with fire even though they represent the church, even though they are in the wilderness. They're in the wilderness because they undoubtedly refuse to take the Mark of the Beast, so these are good people. They're in the church. They follow the hierarchy. They're faithful as far as that goes, but they don't realize that the camouflage soldiers, that's from the 70s and 80s; that's not going to protect them anymore. They've got to listen to the prophets that have been assigned to them and Saint Paul says do not despise prophecy. Your life depends on it and we see that not only with Dana's ministry but my own ministry. So only one is saved because he takes out Mary's Rosary, which is one of the two wings on the eagle that the woman flies into the desert on. The two wings of the eagle represent Mary's Rosary and Scapular. And as I say, the desert and the wilderness, they represent the same thing. Okay let's look at my next slide.

“After he got away the soldiers began circling the fire tower and they grabbed large sticks and they set the ends on fire like torches but the tower was made of steel and it would not burn. One of them whistled very loudly and I heard large trucks coming through the canopy and there were two 18 wheelers coming slowly up to the two corners of the tower. They had open trailers that were full of metal and gasoline that you could smell the gas coming off. It was just pieces of metal in a pool of gasoline like in the back of a semi-trailer with the top cut off.”

Okay I'm sure you in my regular audience understand this numerology. 2 as I said before, is the number of mankind. The 18 wheelers; 18 is another number for the Antichrist; 6 plus 6 plus 6. These are the people; that's the forces of the Antichrist within the church who are now going to attack the tower that the prophet is at. And we know the Antichrist will be in the church because of Mary's prophecy at La Salette to a couple of teenagers Melanie Calvat and Maximin Giraud. Rome will lose the faith and become the seat of the Antichrist and as Pope Paul VI said, the smoke of Satan has entered into the Catholic Church. So these 18 wheelers, that's what they symbolize. This prophecy is not just for Dana and his evangelical congregation. It's also for our own remnant Catholic Church. Let's look at the next slide I've got here ready to go.

“At this moment I prayed and asked God for help and I looked out across the sky. It was then that I saw not 100s but 1000s of the tops of other fire towers all around me and there were people, men and women, in those towers and they were all yelling at people below them about being safe and avoiding the fire but they were also dealing with the trucks that were coming towards the towers.”

So what's surprising about this is there are thousands of other watchmen like this? I'd like to know who they are. On YouTube there are far more false prophets than people like Dana Coverstone who's giving true prophecy. I don't know any. Well there might be a few other Catholic prophets out there, but anyway you can tell which ones are true, because they warn you about the hierarchy in the church and they tell you that you have to pray Mary's Rosary. There are some. I don't know if there's thousands, maybe there are if you count all the evangelicals and the Catholics. There may be a thousand. I hope he's right. All right, let's look at the next slide; the next part of Dana's dream.

“Each truck backed up a little bit trying to get speed to hit the towers as well. So all of a sudden we hear the trucks start revving up. They're revving their engines and a soldier that held a lit flare ready to throw, he threw it in the back of the trailer and those trucks exploded in flame. And this happened all over around me as I saw literally 1000s of fire towers. That same precise moment all of us on the towers, the men, the women, myself, we made fists; we put our hands straight up in the air and we yelled as loud as we could, “Until He comes, until He comes.”

So, Dana is telling us, particularly himself that we have to continue on the watchtower until Jesus returns. We are in that phase of human existence. What Dana's talking about is an End Times prophecy. These are the people who will be martyred by the fires, but they go to Heaven because they knew enough not to take the Mark of the Beast, but they don't listen to the prophets, and all you have to do is ask a Catholic and most of them are loyal to Pope Francis, which is an error because they don't listen to what Mary said at La Salette. Therefore they are good people as the Bible says, they're going to wear white and they're going to have palms in their hands when they get to Heaven, but they are not going to survive into the Millennium.

To survive into the Millennium they have to have a refuge. None of these people have found a refuge except the one kid, the teen who moved 50 feet out of the path that he was on. That's what you've got to do. The 50 feet represents Mary's Rosary. So he found safety through that number, that numerological number which symbolizes, as I say, Mary's Rosary. Okay let's look at the next slide.

“And now those trucks are revving those engines, they're on fire in the back, so to speak and each of us in the towers went back to yelling at people. Those trucks are revving their engines but we're yelling at people to watch what's going on, and the soldiers shouted back to us. They were telling the people, “There's no fire, they're lying”. And those soldiers shouted back and said, “Now we bring the fire to you.” And there were explosions all over the area as they moved those trucks approaching as quickly as they could.”

Now this is believable. The hierarchy is going to not only teach something completely different than what the prophets are saying, they're going to try to stop the prophets. They're going to back these fire trucks into the tower, and if you don't believe they can't do that; what happened to Melanie Calvat the seer of La Salette? She was exiled from her own country by the church. They forced her out of France. She died in Italy. And as I said, look what they did Sister Lucy. We don't know what they did to Sister Lucy. So this is going on right now, and it's only getting worse as we all know, because now, the False Prophet has taken over the Vatican. And Mary prophesied Rome will lose the faith and become the seat of the Antichrist. Okay let's look at the next slide from Dana's dream.

“And those of us on the towers, we put our arms around the metal in front of us and we just held on, but we kept yelling while we held on the tower, we kept yelling at people below us to not run towards the fire, to go left, to go right, go north, go south. And when the trucks hit those towers all around me there was a sonic boom and the towers shook very, very, very, very badly but they did not go down. And they backed up as we continued to yell at the people in our area of influence.”

And the next slide:

“And then they came speeding forward again to hit the tower, the feet of the tower, and this time the towers moved more than before and the ground around it caught fire as well as the trailers tipped over and they wedged the trucks against the tower feet. And those in the towers, we kept yelling down at people and now we're yelling at the drivers of the trucks who were trapped telling them to get out, the fire was spreading around them.”

And the next slide:

“Several of those trucks I could hear explode. One exploded at my feet and it killed the driver inside. But one of those drivers was trying to get his way out and I kept going, “Go to the right, go to your right, jump off the truck, jump off the truck and go right.” He looked back and he said, ‘I’m sorry, I’m sorry, I’m sorry.’ But they still did not listen to us about where they were running and they ran into the fire as well so they ended up getting killed.”

So as I say, these are good people. The truck driver, he's going to go to Heaven. He's going to wear a white robe. He's going to have a gown, but because he's misled by the soldiers, the soldiers are misleading him, unless they move 50 feet like I said, if they move 50 feet, if they take up the Rosary, then they can be protected, but, as you can see, the vast number of people are not going to. They're going to continue following the hierarchy, and that's why both John in the Book of Revelation and Dana here in the Fire Tower Dream see a large number of people, a huge number. It's the same group. Dana sees them as they are in the tribulation and before they go to Heaven. John sees them in the Book of Revelation after they go to Heaven and they have a glorious destiny. They are faithful to their hierarchy but they're not going to survive into the Millennium. To do that, they have to take up Mary's Rosary and Scapula. Okay the next slide:

“Those of us in the tower, we warned some of those that were bursting into flames right when they hit. It seemed like an invisible wall of fire; they could not see but we could. Some did get very warm and turned back. Some felt the heat but they seemed confused and they kept going forward until they too burst into flames. A few thanked those of us up on the tower with tears in their eyes and they ran to safety. And those in the towers kept warning others and screaming.”

So we do see that a few are going to run to safety and we know what that means. They're going to run 50 feet away. They're going to take up the Rosary. So if your family members who know enough not to take the Mark of the Beast; I mean that's a given, and they're living in the desert. That is, they're heading towards the fire and they don't have food, because the black horse is riding, and the fires from I guess meteors or comets, that's what I believe; it could be nuclear fires, they can protect themselves, just like the family was protected in Hiroshima with a nuclear blast. They lived within six blocks of Ground Zero, but they prayed the Rosary.

Dana is actually telling us to pray the Rosary even though he's evangelical but that's why I'm here to interpret it so that we Catholics understand that the Holy Spirit is talking through Dana to his people and to the Catholic Church. I'm now ready for the next slide.

“Some of us were hoarse from yelling so loud and some were so tired we simply whispered because that was all that we could do from all the yelling we were doing to try to get people to realize how dangerous it was. And suddenly the noise, the fire, the flames, the explosions, all the yelling, it just stopped. Everything got brutally silent and the clouds got very white in front of us, right in front of our eyes, and it got very, very transparent and everything lit up like lightning and flashed and did not go out.”

So now we're going to see the admonition from the Man in White to those of us on the top of the towers.

“I then heard the voice of the man that I see so often in the dreams and he spoke out of that cloud and he said this, “Keep warning the Church.” And then he said it again only louder, “Keep warning the Church.” And then he said it one more time even louder, “Keep warning the Church.”

So what does that mean? Well it's obvious, as Dana understood of course, I understand we have to keep warning the church on the top of the towers, but it also means that my interpretation of who those people are is correct. They are the church, all those people on the ground. They represent the church and they are going in the wrong direction and I think that is the message. The people will go to Heaven. They will even be awarded white robes. They'll have palms in their hands, but they are misguided into not surviving into the Millennium, and that is the message I believe of this prophecy. So now let's look at the next slide. This is the last slide of Dana's dream.

“And in that instance, the lightness, that light disappeared and the darkness returned. And I saw the fire on the canopy below me; I saw that all the other people in the tower started yelling again at those below even while the towers on which they sat were being attacked and moving. So we just kept doing what we were doing and we warned the Church with even greater intensity.”

So I mentioned Sister Lucy before who was replaced by the Vatican by an imposter and that's because she was giving true prophecy. The last interview she gave. she said the consecration of Russia had not been done. I think the Vatican decided at that time, they had to remove her because she was undermining the official Vatican position. And the Vatican position was that Pope John Paul II, although they removed her before then, Quite a few of the popes had attempted consecration and Pope John Paul II did. And one of the things Sister Lucy said in the third secret of Fatima was in Portugal the dogma of the faith will always be preserved. The most important dogma of the faith is the dogma of the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, and Pope Francis has succeeded in bringing about the abomination of desolation. The Eucharist is no longer valid in many places.

Now Sister Lucy predicts that Portugal would keep the dogma of the faith. We have discovered that Poland is keeping the dogma of the faith, because they have not gone along with Pope Francis. To have a valid Eucharist, you must have used the same words that Jesus used, you must use the same matter that Jesus used, you must have the same intention that Jesus had. That is you must intend to consecrate the bread and the wine into His body and blood. The first two requirements, you can tell if a priest is using the wrong words. You'll say this Eucharist is not valid and I'm not going to receive this Eucharist. Priests know, bishops know, and even the pope is smart enough not to try to change that, because you can tell. It's the same way with the matter. If he tries to consecrate strawberry shortcake or a chocolate chip cookie, you would know it right away, but you don't know the intentions of the priest.

That's the third requirement for a valid Eucharist. That's why the church teaches that it is not the priest who determines the validity of the Eucharist. The intention is determined by the church. But what if the church loses the faith and becomes the seat of the Antichrist? What if the pope changes the Roman Catholic Church into the One World Religion? You have to do exactly what the bishops in Poland did. You have to renounce the promulgation that Pope Francis put out in his apostolic exhortation Amoris Laetitia footnote 351. You have to do exactly what the Polish bishops announced publicly. They said we are not going to give Communion to people living in mortal sin. We are not going to give Communion to divorced and civilly remarried Catholics, thus they maintain the legitimate Eucharist in Poland.

Many other countries they have not. Malta, they said anyone and everyone may receive Communion in Malta. That ruins the intention. The two intentions, the intention to consecrate the body and the blood of our Lord and the intention to give Communion to people living in mortal sin, those are incompatible. It's impossible. It's an impossibility. You cannot have those two intentions at the same time and that's why.

Therefore in Malta those consecrations are invalid. And how about this country? Well let me show you what I found. Here are the bishops of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Now do you think these people are going to preserve the dogma of the faith? Michael Voris shows pictures like this. These people have lost the faith. You can just look at them and these are American bishops.

So where does that leave the rest of us? The only thing I can recommend is that you go to my website and look at the prayer that Sister Renee published on there; a prayer of discernment to find out if your priest is giving valid Eucharists. If his intention is to follow Pope Francis in the One World Religion and give Communion to people living in mortal sin, his consecrations are not valid and he has to publicly state that he is not going to follow Pope Francis just like the bishops in Poland did.

Those of you who do receive Communion in these churches, you are going to be like the people in Dana's dream who head towards the fire, and you refuse to listen to the prophets, and most of you are good people. I know my brother's in that category. He pooh-poohs the idea of prophecy telling him that the consecrations are invalid, and you know as Dana says, what else can we do? He's going to keep yelling and I'm going to keep yelling at the top of my voice until He comes. So Dana is 100% right. It's an amazing dream that he received and that is my interpretation.

Okay so that is the end of Dana's dream and so until I do see all of you again may God bless all of you and may all of you have a very blessed evening.
