

Trump Wins and the Battle Begins!

This will be just a brief review of the weekend events where Donald Trump was continually attacked especially in the news media because the news media is controlled by Satan. And I'm going to title this program: 'Trump wins and the battle begins'. I borrowed that title from 'Still Small Voice' and I'll try to remember to put a link to her video below because it is an excellent video and it sums up what we must do during Trump's term of office because he will need a great deal of help. He is up against a very evil and powerful enemy and as St. Paul notes, we battle against 'powers and principalities' and not against flesh and blood.

First of all, I want to comment on this so-called Women's March and you can see all the trash they left behind. These women are very nasty people. They complain about some of the language that Donald Trump used but their language is far worse. And I feel sorry for these women because actually they are not protesting Donald Trump. I mean, if they really wanted to protest someone who degraded women they would have protested Bill Clinton's inauguration but they were nowhere to be found at that time. It's all a big lie from the media. They have been brainwashed; what they are really complaining about is abortion. That is the main issue and most of these women feel guilty because they have performed abortions on themselves; they have killed their own unborn child and in a way this is a blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, and I've explained this before, because the unborn child, even one fertilized egg, is a more perfect expression of the Holy Spirit than a full-grown human being. The Holy Spirit is represented by tininess; that is one of his characteristics.

But there is a way to defeat the evil entity in this country which is going to battle Mr. Donald Trump. And I also showed you this in the last couple of days; Mr. Donald Trump, when he took the oath of office, and I showed you this, when he put his left hand on the Bible he used five outstretched fingers and with his right hand he swore with three fingers above and two below. I explained to you that symbolizes God over man and I did some research because some people told me all the presidents do that. So here's a picture of Barack Obama: as you can see he did not give that hand sign. That particular hand sign is very significant. Mr Donald Trump gave us 3 fives: the five outstretched fingers on one hand, the 3 over 2 on the other hand, and the five buttons on his shirt sleeve. I told you at the time that symbolizes Mary's Rosary: five plus five plus five. That coincides with Bible prophecy because Mary's Rosary is the weapon Jesus will use to defeat the Antichrist.

And I also showed you Kellyanne Conway's coat. Now, this is a better picture because some people said they could only see four buttons. Here you can see 5+5 and one of my subscribers sent me a very interesting email and he said you missed the other five and he is right.

The other five, to give us 3 5s, 5 plus 5 plus 5, is that Kellyanne Conway turned 50 years old on Inauguration Day. Of course, that would be 5 plus 0 and there are 50 Hail Marys in 5 decades of the Rosary. None of this is accidental, people. Trump wins but the battle begins. You and I must take part in this battle and I urge you, if you are not used to praying Mary's Rosary, you don't have to be a Catholic to honor Mary. No one is honored more in the Bible than Mary of all human beings. She is blessed among all women. Try saying just one Hail Mary. That is not man's prayer; most of that comes right out of the Bible. Those were the words that God spoke to Mary through the angel Gabriel.

So, there is your mission for today; you know the battle you know we have to support our president. Donald Trump is on our side. He's going to defund Planned Parenthood, I believe today. That would be the greatest start he could make for his presidency and that is why they hate him; that's why Satan gets these poor women who have aborted their babies out on the streets. They should be objecting to someone like Bill Clinton. They don't know what's going on. They don't understand the battle but we can convert them and that's our job in these End Times. In these last years that we have left as a country we need to convert. And I want to warn you: you are not going to make it into the Millennium unless you learn how to honor Mary.
