

Victory of Remnant Catholics Over NWO Pt 2

(Who Stops the NWO? Trump or Remnant Catholics?)

This will be part 2 in my series on the victory of the Remnant Catholic Church over the New World Order and, as I said in my previous part, Donald Trump is not going to defeat the New World Order despite what all of his supporters here on the internet say. Personally, I voted for Ted Cruz in the New York State primary; not that he would probably defeat the New World Order any more than Donald Trump (1).

The defeat of the New World Order, according to Bible prophecy, is by the remnant Catholic Church, those of us who 'flee from the field', as Jesus told us to do in the Olivet Discourse, Matthew 24, verse 18, when we see the Abomination of Desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet; and Pope Francis has already achieved that goal of the False Prophet when he said that divorced and remarried Catholics could receive Holy Communion.

And we've already had a whole variety of responses to Pope Francis' initiative. Bishop Athanasius Schneider says the Pope must clarify what he wrote in Amoris Laetitia. Good luck with that one, Bishop. Pope Francis is into obfuscation not clarification. Cardinal Kaspar and quite a few German bishops say, yes indeed, Pope Francis is allowing Communion to divorced and remarried Catholics. The Philippine bishops are going to allow it. That will invalidate all of the Eucharists on the Philippine Islands unless your local parish priest renounces what Pope Francis has done. On the other hand, the bishops in Poland have all announced they will not allow Communion to divorced and remarried Catholics. You people in Poland are very fortunate; your Communion will be valid.

Here in the United States it's up in the air; my own Bishop, Bishop Cunningham, has stated that he does not believe Amoris Laetitia varies from church doctrine for the last two thousand years. I hope he carries through on that. My own parish priest has said only Catholics in good standing may receive Communion in his church and I hope he sticks with that. But the situation is very fluid and Scripture says there will be a variety of responses.

What I have been talking about in these two parts is the victory of the remnant Catholic Church against the New World Order as found in Daniel, chapter number 2, where the stone is cut out from the Mountain. The stone represents the remnant Catholic Church; the mountain represents the Roman Catholic Church. The stone itself becomes a great mountain encompassing the entire Earth. The stone is cut out by Jesus; Jesus is not the stone, he is the stone cutter!

And we can see they must be related, the stone and the mountain, because the stone becomes a great mountain, and they are related. I also mentioned on that program that the feet are made of iron and clay/tin, and you should look at a video by Max Borges (link below) which explains why the materials of the feet are tin and iron, not clay and iron; those two materials symbolize the One World Government and the One World Religion.

Next I want to look at examples in Scripture which verify those two materials represent heaven and earth; let's look at Leviticus, chapter 26, verse number 18: 'But if you will not yet for all this obey me I will chastise you seven times more for your sins'. Almost always when you see a number seven you are getting an End Times prophecy. 'And I will break the pride of your stubbornness and I will make to you the heaven above as iron and the earth as bronze'. So, we see right there in Leviticus, God describes the difference between heaven and earth in terms of two different metals, bronze and iron, and I believe the tin part of the feet of iron and so-called clay actually represents bronze, tin is an ingredient in bronze.

And now let's look at Deuteronomy chapter 28, verse number 23: 'By the heaven that is over thee of bronze and the ground thou treadest on of iron'. Now, this is just the reverse. Both the bronze and the iron, in two different parts of the Old Testament, one symbolizes heaven and one symbolizes the earth. So, I'm not sure with the feet of iron and clay on Nebuchadnezzar's statue which is which but that is what those two parts represent (2).

As far as our victory as the Remnant Church, let's look at Genesis 3:15 way back in the Old Testament; and this is the very first example of Apocalyptic Literature in all of scripture. Some people call it the Proto Evangelium, in other words, a proto gospel. But that's not true; it is a Proto Apocalypse. This is the first example of Apocalyptic Literature in the entire Bible: 'And the Lord God said to the serpent (this is verse 14) because you have done this thing you are cursed among the cattle.' Notice these things are all curses put on the serpent, who is satan. 'Because you have done this thing you are cursed among all cattle and beasts of the earth. Upon your breast shall you go and earth shall you eat all the days of your life and I will put enmity between you and the woman.'

All of these things are bad things which show how the serpent will be humiliated. That's why I say it is not Jesus who humiliates the serpent; it is Mary because that will be much more humiliating for the serpent. All of these things are humiliations: eating dirt, crawling on its belly, and being defeated by a human being, a created person. 'I will put enmity between you and the woman and thy seed and her seed (this is where we in the remnant Church come in) and she shall crush thy head (Mary's job is to defeat satan) and you shall lie in wait for her heel'. But our job is to crush the New World Order. Our job, as the seed of the woman, is to crush the seed of the serpent.

And we also find this in Romans; a lot of people point to Romans as an example of where Jesus crushes the serpent and this is not true. Let me read exactly what Paul says, in chapter 16, verse number 20: 'And may the God of peace crush Satan under your feet speedily'. Well that certainly sounds like Jesus crushing the seed of the serpent and Satan because the God of peace is Jesus. But, as I say, Jesus is the stone cutter not the stone on Daniel's statue. The God of peace, Jesus, crushes Satan under YOUR feet. In other words, we are the ten toes that will crush Satan and his seed. The ten toes symbolize Mary's Rosary and Scapular. That's the same numerology as Genesis 3:15, the three Mysteries of the Rosary, Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious and the 15 decades of the Rosary: that is the meaning of the numbers 3:15.

But this victory comes at a cost and it will not be easy. Let's read Revelation 11, verse number 2, and we go back to what Jesus is saying, that those who are in the field, that is the Catholic Church must flee when you see the Abomination of Desolation, which Pope Francis has already brought about. Revelation chapter 11, verse number 1: 'And there was given me a reed unto a rod and it was said to me arise and measure the temple of God (this is the Roman Catholic Church, the body of our Lord in the End Times) and the altar and them that adore therein, but the court which is without the temple cast out and measure it not because it is given unto the Gentiles (the Gentiles in the End Times, they are not necessarily people who are not Jews, they are anti Christians) and the Holy City (the holy city in the End Times is not Jerusalem, the holy city is Rome because it is the home of the Roman Catholic Church) they shall tread under foot 42 months'.

This Abomination of Desolation lasts for approximately, between three and three and one-half years. Jesus said that he would shorten the days. So, very shortly, it won't be long, the Remnant Catholic Church will be victorious over the New World Order. It is prophesied. I hope Donald Trump joins us. Maybe he will be one of our leaders but it is fanciful to think that he is going to be the one to defeat the New World Order. I don't see that in the Bible. I don't see us being led by one person. It's always a group that defeats the New World Order.

And so, in conclusion to this two-part series, we have seen that Jesus prophesied there will be a separation; that we must 'flee the field'. There will be two parts, the old mountain, the Roman Catholic Church, and the stone which must separate from it, the Remnant Catholic Church. There will be difficulties. We will be martyred many of us, but in the end we will be gloriously victorious. This is in Bible prophecy and we should not be afraid to leave the Church. In some countries you won't have to leave as in Poland. In other countries you will have to leave. And the Bible shows us various solutions to the problem and that verifies what we have already begun to see: different bishops are fighting against other bishops, Cardinals against Cardinals. This is prophesied for these End Times.

No one said these End Times would be easy. There are four groups and already we have seen the first Abomination of Desolation which affects the Protected Catholics, the Remnant Catholic Church. The next will be for the Raptured Protestants. That is caused by a nuclear war. That's the second Abomination of Desolation. That will precipitate the sealing of the Jews. 'Let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains'. And it will also precipitate the martyrdom of Christians by the Antichrist and that's the fourth Abomination of Desolation. All those will follow quickly now that the first one has occurred when Pope Francis, the False Prophet, took the daily sacrifice away from the Prince.

1) I now realize Trump will convert to the Remnant Catholic Church.

2) I have since come to understand that the metals are reversed in Leviticus 26, verse 18, as a punishment on the Israelites; in other words, in the Divine scheme, the earth should be 'iron' and the heavens 'bronze', as in Leviticus 28. Thus on the statue, the foot of iron symbolizes the One World Government while the foot of clay/tin (bronze) symbolizes the One World Religion.
