

The Antichrist Arrives Gangnam Style!

Welcome to Revelation Unraveled. I'm your host William Tapley, also known as the Third Eagle of the Apocalypse, and the Co-Prophet of the End Times, and incidentally, also someone who called the last two elections in the United States 100% correct. Can you name any other so-called prophet on YouTube who did the same? I don't think so. But, the election is over with. Many people have asked me to comment on it, but it's over and done with, and it is time to move on.

And you Democrats, you who think that you could deny God three times at your convention and that Satan will therefore let you have the Leopard for four more years, you are sadly mistaken. In Daniel 7, the Antichrist follows the Leopard and he is the one who comes next. And Satan wants to bring the Antichrist in and as soon as possible. Believe me; we have very little time left. And God is already announcing who the Antichrist is, just as He announced for the last four years, who Barack Obama is. But He is doing it in a very interesting and different manner.

Four years ago, Barack Obama was elected on the 4th of November. This week, he was re-elected on the 6th of November. The number 4, announced the arrival of the 'Leopard', but the number 6 this week is announcing the arrival of the Antichrist. Many times in the past four years God has revealed who Barack Obama is through sporting events, and I've already gone through that many times on this program, so I won't repeat myself.

This time however, God has changed His plans. He is announcing the Antichrist through popular music, and I only discovered that myself this week, and I am passing along my information to you, just as soon as I receive it. And in fact, I'm asking for help from my YouTube subscribers, because very often, you give me ideas which did not occur to me. I am not very much into popular music. I know some of you probably are; so I'm going to give two examples on this program, which are really amazing, but I am sure there are many others out there.

The two popular songs I want to talk about on this program are, 'Gangnam Style' and 'Call Me Maybe'. As far as I can tell, they are really the two most popular viral videos on YouTube for the past several months. If you search either of those titles, you'll find hundreds of thousands of results, and many people are making parodies of those songs, and they are very tuneful, they are bouncy, they are up lifting.

As far as I can see, they are not like Lady Gaga or Madonna videos: I see very little nudity for example in them, very little sexual perversion, Satanism and so on. Those things are usually featured in popular videos. I don't hear any swear words, for example, I don't hear curse words.

So, I believe, God is using videos of this type to get out His message, because He knows they have a much wider popularity. More people are going to watch them, including families. And these are the people God wants to get His message to. And I'm not saying, the people who made these videos, or who wrote these songs knew what they were doing. I don't think they did. It's like, for example, when Barack Obama used the word 'war' 44 times in his acceptance speech at the Noble Peace Prize. I don't think he counted those words beforehand, but God was giving us a message, just as He is doing with this popular music.

First, let's take a look at Gangnam Style. The three most important words are, 'Oppan Gangnam Style', and if you put those into English, I mean those are Korean, if you put those into English, I believe the words that we want to study are Open Gangland Style (transliteration, not translation). And this is very interesting: the Antichrist is revealing himself through this phrase: 'open' means this is the grand opening of the reign of the Antichrist, that is what the word 'open' is referring to.

'Gangland' (transliteration) refers to the reign of the Antichrist, because remember, he is the 'Lawless One', as found in the Bible and 'style', of course, indicates that he is not a man of substance. He is all froth and frivolity; he is not a serious human being. He is evil and that is what 'Open Gangland Style' is referring to.

Next, let's look at the other big viral hit of the summer on YouTube which is 'Call me Maybe'. And there are four very significant phrases in this song: 'Hey I just met you', 'This is crazy', 'But here's my number', 'Call me maybe'. Let's look at those four phrases separately, and see how God is revealing to us the name of the Antichrist.

'Hey, I just met you': the 'I', in this case, refers to the Antichrist and 'just meeting you', means that he is just now revealing himself. This is the Antichrist's entrance into the End Times. And, 'this is crazy', represents the seven years of Tribulation. Remember back in Daniel, chapter number 4, King Nebuchadnezzar goes crazy or insane for seven times. He lives among the beasts and he eats grass. The beasts that he lives among are the two beasts of the Revelation, the Antichrist and the False Prophet. Those are the seven years of insanity and this is when the Antichrist is going to reveal himself, during those seven years.

'But here's my number', and of course I think it should be obvious to you what the Antichrist's number is: his number is 666, and he is not talking here about a telephone number, he is talking here about the number of the beast, which he is going to give to every one of us. That's what he means when he says, 'here's my number'. And the last phrase is really the most interesting: 'so call me maybe'. Now he is not saying, call me on the telephone. What the Antichrist is saying here is, my NAME is 'maybe'; call me Maybe.

What's interesting is that, Nostradamus called the Antichrist, 'Mabus'. Is there any connection between Mabus and Maybe? These two words for the Antichrist, 'Mabus' and 'Maybe' are not identical, but they are very similar. They both begin with the letters 'MAB'. Now I know, some people say that Obama is the Antichrist, and they say that the 'B', 'A' and the 'M' sequence is reversed in his name, but that comes from 'Mabus'. I tend not to believe that. I believe 'Mabus', 'Maybe' or the Antichrist is a different person, and I think the Lord is revealing to us that this is very close to what the name of the Antichrist will be.

Now I know, some of you are probably skeptical that the Antichrist would be preceded and announced through music, and yet that is exactly what happens in Daniel, chapter number 3. Don't forget Daniel is the greatest Old Testament prophet of the End Times, and in chapter number 3, Nebuchadnezzar builds a huge statue, which he orders everyone in his country to worship. And it's very interesting that they are to worship the statue when the music sounds.

The music immediately precedes their worshipping of the statue, and that is what we are seeing today: popular music is immediately preceding our worship of the Antichrist. Let's look at Daniel chapter number 3, verses 5,7,10 and 15. Notice that this following phrase is repeated four times and that means it is very important for the End Times: 'at what time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of music, you fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up.' You really need to study Daniel. These End Times are going by faster and faster. I would not be surprised if we saw many more signs in the coming days and weeks about the Antichrist, which will be verified in that great Old Testament prophet Daniel.

And so in conclusion, I don't believe the Lord is going to give us any more clues to the identity of Barack Obama: his time has almost passed. Our Lord spent four years revealing to us who he was, and he has already shifted gears and now, God is telling us who the Antichrist will be. And as I said before, I am enlisting the help of my YouTube subscribers, because I simply cannot follow all of the popular music, but look for this type of video. Don't look at the satanic, evil ones with nudity and swear words and so on. Look at the ones that are happy and bouncy and up lifting, because those are the ones in which God is going to use, tell us who the Antichrist is.
