

Victory of Remnant Catholics Over NWO Pt 1

(The Stone Cut From a Mountain is Not Jesus)

Quite a few people have been asking me 'what does it mean to flee from the Roman Catholic Church'? As you know, Jesus warned in the Olivet Discourse: 'When you see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet then let those who are in the field not go back to take their cloaks'. And the field, as I have explained many times on this program, refers to the End Times Roman Catholic Church and there is a separation: the Remnant Catholic Church must depart, or separate, from the Roman Catholic Church.

On the other hand, Jesus only answers one of many questions about this Remnant Church and that is the 'when'. He doesn't answer the 'who', 'what', 'where', 'why', 'how', 'how many', 'how long' and He doesn't talk about the glorious destiny of this Remnant Catholic Church. And I think it's important for those of us who have been Catholics for two thousand years, so to speak, and faithful to the Pope. It's very difficult, at this point in time, to leave the Church especially when it is under attack and our knee-jerk reaction has always been to defend the Pope especially against all the many haters. Here on YouTube, if you search under 'Catholic', or under 'Catholic Church' and you will find hundreds and thousands of hate videos. So, it's only natural that we would defend Pope Francis, even though, as I've discovered and you have discovered with me, he is indeed the False Prophet of the End Times and we must leave as Jesus warned us. So, on this program I thought I would concentrate on the glorious victory which the remnant Catholic Church will achieve, our glorious destiny.

And in order to see perhaps the best example of that we need to read Daniel, chapter number 2, where King Nebuchadnezzar has this amazing dream about a gigantic statue, and the head is made of gold and the chest and arms are made of silver and the belly and thighs are made of bronze and the legs are made of iron.

And, as Daniel explains to the King, the king, by the way, can't remember this dream so Daniel has to explain it to him, the golden head symbolized Babylon, the chest and arms of silver symbolize Medo-Persia.

Now, actually, Daniel doesn't say this, he just says these kingdoms will follow. We, as Bible scholars of the End Times, we know what those represent. The belly and thighs of bronze symbolize Greece. The two legs of iron symbolize the two legs of the Roman Empire, Rome and Constantinople. The final part, the feet of iron and possibly clay, Bible scholars have never really fully understood what those represent. And I want to talk on this program about what that symbolism is because, as I say, no one has understood that and it is extremely important because we in the Remnant Catholic Church are very much involved. Let me read that passage so that we know exactly what we're talking about. I hope to at least cover the victorious passages so that those of us in the Remnant Catholic Church who are reluctant to leave, and I am certainly reluctant to leave myself, we can see that it is necessary to separate but that we have a glorious future.

Daniel chapter 2, verse 32: 'The head of the statue was of fine gold (Daniel is explaining the dream to the king who, as I say forgot it) but the breast and the arms of silver (that represents the Medo-Persians) and the belly and thighs of bronze (that represents Greece) and the legs of iron (that represents ancient Rome, the Roman Empire) and the feet part of iron and part of clay'.

Now, here's where I'm going to insert a very interesting observation from a fellow YouTuber by the name of Max Borges, and I will put a link to his video below.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GronXvDjgtI&list=WL>

He says the second material is not clay! He says that it is iron and tin and he says it is a mistranslation of an ancient Aramaic word and it has been wrong for more than two thousand years. All the translators, even going back to the ancient Hebrews, mistranslated that word and I think he is correct. Take a look at all of the other materials, they are all metals: gold, silver, bronze, iron, therefore 'tin' makes sense. Secondly, they are all descending in value: gold, silver, bronze, iron and the cheapest being tin. And also it fulfills a characteristic which we will read in a few minutes, and that is iron does not mix with clay or with tin. Iron and tin do not mix. However, tin does mix with copper, for example, to produce bronze, but it does not mix with iron.

Continuing with verse number 34: 'Thou saw until a stone was cut out from the mountain without hands and it struck the statue upon the feet thereof that were of iron and clay/tin and broke them in pieces.' This stone cut out from the mountain is the Remnant Catholic Church. The mountain is the Roman Catholic Church. No Bible scholar has ever understood this. Most claim that the stone represents Jesus. In fact, I used to think that myself. That is not the case. We know that because the stone is manufactured. Jesus is not a created human being. Secondly the stone, as we will see in a minute, gets larger and encompasses the earth. Jesus is the same yesterday, today and always. He does not change in size. We need to understand this because it represents humanity's victory.

And verse number 35: 'then was the iron and the clay/tin, the bronze, the silver and the gold broken to pieces together and became like the chaff of a summer's threshing floor and they were carried away by the wind.' The remnant Catholic Church is going to destroy all world tyranny. I know here on YouTube, there are people who promote that Donald Trump is going to destroy the New World Order. That is not Biblical, unless Donald Trump joins the remnant Catholic Church. And he might. Maybe he's our leader at this time. We don't know that for sure. I know Matt Drudge and Alex Jones thinks he is our leader. I am very dubious about that possibility.

Let me continue: 'And there was no place found for them, but the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the entire earth.' Now, it's interesting that my Bible, a Catholic Douay-Rheims Bible, here is their note, which is kind of interesting: 'the Kingdom of Christ is the Catholic Church which cannot be destroyed'. Well, we'll see that is not possible because this is an End Times prophecy. The Catholic Church was formed two thousand years ago out of the Roman Empire. It is not formed during the time of these latter-day kingdoms.

Let me read Daniel's explanation of the dream to King Nebuchadnezzar: 'And whereas you saw the feet and the toes, part of potter's clay/tin and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided but yet it will take its origin from the iron'. That means that it will be headquartered in Rome. That's where the 'origin' comes from. The division, the dividing of the kingdom into clay/tin and iron represents the division between the One World Government and the One World Religion. No one has ever understood that before. Anyone you see who is promoting the separation of church and state, that person is promoting the One World Tyranny; people like Bernie Sanders, for example, or Barack Obama.

Go on YouTube: do a search under 'separation of church and state'. You'll see the One Worlders, the people who are supporting the One World Communist Tyranny, the New World Order, which will eventually rule the world and will defeat Western Capitalism. They promote a separation of church and state and this Biblically is the chief characteristic of this One World Government. That's why we have both an Antichrist and a False Prophet; a One World Religion and a One World Government. That is the chief division and that's why the feet on Nebuchadnezzar's statue are divided into iron and, as I say, clay/tin.

Daniel continues explaining the dream in verse number 44: 'But in the days of those kingdoms (he is talking about the last kingdoms, the ten toes on the statue represent the same as the ten horns on the Antichrist. All the ten kings of the world, the major Kings, will support the Antichrist) in the days of those kingdoms (that's why this can't be the Roman Catholic Church. This is an End Times prophecy) the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that shall never be destroyed (that is we, the remnant Catholic Church who must leave the Roman Catholic Church; this is what Daniel is prophesying about) and his kingdom shall not be delivered up to another people (this kingdom will be the kingdom that Jesus forms. Jesus is not the stone, He is the stonecutter. He will form our remnant Catholic Church) and it shall break in pieces and shall consume all these Kingdoms and itself shall stand forever.'

Now, this video is already getting too long for YouTube, they recommend ten minutes. I want to continue showing other passages, and I think I'll do this in another video. This division of the feet into iron and clay/tin is prophesied in other parts of the Bible, for example, in Daniel chapter 4, where the stump of the tree which is left, which represents Western Civilization, is banded with a band of Iron and a band of bronze. Remember, bronze is made of tin and copper. Those two bands on that stump represent the One World Government and the One World Religion. They will constrict, they will defeat Western democracy and we will have the One World Government, the One World Tyranny which features the separation of church and state.

Well, I just wanted to give you in the remnant Catholic Church a little encouragement before this weekend starts. As I say, you should ask your priests and your bishops, are they going to go along with Pope Francis' initiative of taking the daily sacrifice away from the prince? Will their communions no longer be valid? Will their consecrations be false? Jesus will not enter into a sacrament which is going to be given to the dogs. Jesus warned us. Paul warned us; he says 'he who eats and drinks the body and blood of our Lord unworthily is guilty of the body and the blood of our Lord'.

